The pro se petitioner is an inmate at the South Carolina Department of Corrections. He brings this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 contending that he is not receiving good time credits that would reduce the length of his imprisonment.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and Recommendation and opines that the § 2241 petition should be dismissed because the petitioner has failed to demonstrate that he has exhausted his state court remedies. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

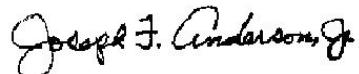

The petitioner was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on January 22, 2014. However, the petitioner did not file any objections to the Report within the time limits prescribed. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation, the court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation proper and incorporated herein by reference. Accordingly, this action is dismissed without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
